

Public High School

School Profile

El Camino Real High School is a comprehensive, independent four-year high school located in the West San Fernando Valley area serving the communities of Woodland Hills, West Hills and Canoga Park. Previously part of Los Angeles Unified School District, El Camino chose to become an independent charter school in 2011. This large school offers a very wide range of academic as well as extra curricular possibilities to all students attending. International students are welcomed with open arms and offered to take part in all the great art programs at the same time as they are encouraged to perform at the highest academic level.
